Report to the Community

FISCAL YEAR 2022

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND BOARD PRESIDENT

---

I AM PLEASED TO OFFER YOU our Annual Report for the 2022 fiscal year. Last year was another incredible effort educating, feeding, facilitating healing, and empowering children, adults and seniors— our most vulnerable living in poverty.

You – our volunteers, staff, board, generous donors, sponsors, foundations, and agency partners – collectively served and helped people in our community emerge from the pandemic stronger than ever.

Earlier this fiscal year, our board approved our strategic plan and we began implementing our strategic priorities. We addressed past unresolved complaints of bullying, misogyny, toxic masculinity and inappropriate behavior within the Friday Night Club program. We implemented actions from community forum/healing circles, established a board oversight committee, hired external experts to conduct an independent process review and to provide support to survivors.

Driving deeper education success and economic prosperity are outcomes of a family-centered programmatic approach. We identified models and best practices to inform the work about how we can align our efforts to drive gains from one generation to the next.

We focused on the growing learning loss gap and the social-emotional health of our youth that worsened during the pandemic. We engaged parents more deeply to support our afterschool learners and to nurture healthy families. We hired a social worker to facilitate this family-centered work, held quarterly family outings to foster parent-child time together, facilitated parent workshops and meetings, and hired certified teachers for our summer camps to address learning loss and poise learners for success.

During this past year we saw changes in our staffing. Our beloved Director of Youth Ministries, Laurene Chan, stepped down from her role after 18 years of service. We hired a new Out-of-School Time Director to oversee the development of our afterschool and summer camp operations, a new Director of Development to spearhead our fundraising, communication and marketing efforts, and a Heritage Specialist to help us rebuild our youth leadership and community service opportunities for high school youth.

This is my last annual report as I will be leaving Cameron House on October 20, 2023. I am proud of our staff and volunteers for laying a strong foundation to continue meeting the needs of the changing, post-pandemic Chinese community. Cameron House remains steadfast in its mission to build strength and resilience through family-centered programs.

Thank you again for your continued generosity to provide our community with access to the critical services needed to heal, learn and thrive.

With gratitude,

Cameron House remains steadfast
in its mission to
